NAUTICAL AND NICE

THE CARY ARMS DEVON, UK

An upmarket pub with a handful of seaside-chic rooms overlooking pretty Babbacombe Bay, the Cary Arms seems to function in a parallel universe, frequented by divers (who explore the bay from dawn till dusk), swimmers, fishermen, sailors, hungry walkers and travelling gourmets. As our waiter put it, 'Suits or wetsuits – anything goes.' There are hi-spec bathrooms filled with Temple Spa goodies and beds dressed in soft Egyptian cotton. The nautical-themed saloon is filled with books, cosy sofas and bay-window seats and there's also a spa treatment room. If you can lure yourself away, the surrounding bays offer the chance of dolphin watching and some amazing walks. Doubles from £195 per night. caryarms.co.uk

POUSADA DE SAO TIAGO RELAIS & CHATEAUX MACAU, CHINA

This gem of a boutique hotel climbs up steeply via a series of terraces on the site of the 17th-century Fortaleza da Barra. The rooms are tastefully extravagant with leather floors, buff silk-lined walls and, amazingly, private steam rooms in bathrooms tiled in burnished shells. The Cascata Bar, with its etched mirrors and drop crystal shades, makes a literally dazzling spot for a sundowner. From £226 per suite per night. relaischateaux.com/saotiago

AMAN SPA AT THE CONNAUGHT LONDON, UK

Legendary Mayfair hotel The Connaught has added another feather to its cap with the opening of its Aman Spa, in collaboration with Amanresorts. All cool granite and golden oak, this bijou spa (there are five treatment rooms) is blissfully quiet. Treatments are second-to-none, especially the Aman Spa Experiences (2½ hours). There's a chic pool, steam room and fitness centre, too. Treatments from £70. the-connaught.co.uk
